

Contents

PAGE	UNIT TITLE	TOPICS	USEFUL LANGUAGE AND STRUCTURES
5	1 Introduction to air communications	Setting the scene Basics of radio communication Introduction to non-routine situations	ICAO alphabet and numbers Asking for repetition Questions and short answers Talking about imaginary situations
13	2 Pre-flight	Pre-flight checks Delays and problems Local conditions	Asking for more time Giving a reason Saying what you're going to do Saying there's a problem
21	3 Ground movements	Airport markings and airside vehicles Taxiing and holding Weather problems	Permission, obligation, prohibition Giving warnings and cautions Explaining problems Saying a problem has been solved
29	4 Departure, climbing, and cruising	Take-off Encountering traffic Warnings about hazards	Checking and asking for an alternative Using prepositions of position Saying how much Warnings and requests Time expressions Giving reasons
37	5 En route events	Operational situations Unusual events Medical situations	Comparing things Talking about probability
45	6 Contact and approach	Descent Circuit joining Approach and landing problems	Talking about time Explaining changes in plans Talking about cause and effect Requests
53	7 Landing	Landing incidents Runway conditions Landing hazards	Reported speech Making suggestions Offering help Giving advice or opinions
61	8 On the ground	Taxiing Getting to the gate Clear communication	Explaining what happened Saying what will happen

PAGE	APPENDIX
68	Test yourself!
70	Partner Files
74	Answer key
84	Transcripts